A LETTER FROM THE EDITOR

Things haven't been too exciting ON CAMPUS this year. Fact is, a number of downright depressing things have happened. A Butler fraternity has invaded Mug Rack's "Happy Hour". Meloche has gone ticket happy in Doyle's back parking lot. Fran doesn't want to write sports anymore. To top it all off, there is no beer tonight and my pen is leaking all over my hand. The future didn't look bright at all until Wednesday night.

At approximately 11:30pm I learned the men of Doyle had staged a suprise shaving cream attack on Clare Hall. The underclassmen had been highly successful. From all the accounts I've heard, the halls of Clare were covered wall to wall with the good smelling foam. Bravo!!! ...but this was hardly the end.

A counter-attack?!/*? At first I dismissed this as a wild rumor. It had never happened before and I'll be damned if I thought it would happen now. Again I was proved wrong. High-pitched chants drifting through the fog announced the approach of the Clare Hall Troopers.

The next 45 minutes were truly amazing. The girls were greeted with buckets of water, but their attack was relentless. With the help of wet leaves, they gained a foothold in the doorway between the east and main wings. However, they were soon shocked to find this was just a diversion to draw them inside. As the tide changed, the girls scattered up the stairs with the guys in pursuit. Prisoners were soon taken and held in the restroom an one main. Here the action was furious as the women tried to escape the various tortures. Recognizing a friend was impossible as everyone was covered with water, baby powder and shaving cream.

EXCITEMENT! EXCITEMENT!!!EXCITEMENT!!!!!!

Now for the editorial comment. This happening was just what the Doctor ordered. (I hate to use cliches). The frustration of Midterms had set in like Rigor Mortis. It snapped the entire college community out of a death-like trance, at least thats how it was with me. I would personally like to thank Clare Hall (especially one in particular) for the trill of it all.

End of an Era

Yes Marianites, this next week marks the end of a long Marian tradition, the Sadie Hawkins Dance. Due to lack of response, the annual Halloween turn-about-dance has bit the dust. Instead, the Senior class is sponsoring a dance Wednesday night in the PERC. Add another to lack of interest.

Flash!!! It is just reported that a small band of Doyle Desperados have just ambushed Clare Hall. Armed with just shaving cream, the Desperados sprinted the halls getting in shape for the Intramural play offs next week. Flash!! It has also been reported that a full army of Clare Cobras have attacked Doyle in full scale battle, leaving the halls in similar shape to that of Xenia, Ohio after last spring's tornado. Guess the men underestimated the power of the new liberated women.

Speaking of Clare, I hear there has been some trouble in a roommate switch. It seems due to personality differences, a move was made against the will of Empress Barb, and both parties have told me they are going to stand their ground.

Last but not least, congratulations to the Homecoming Queen candidates. Now I know what Farrell meant by the Clare Hall Block.

--Yours till we clean up the leaves, tooth paste, shaving cream, water and over all crap.

Mellow

Dear Carbon

I would like to rebut part of what Mellow said in his recent article on Intramural Football-October 18th.

As a spectator, football appears to be a sport where much physical contact is made. I suppose it is difficult at times for some players to control their emotions and the amount of spirit which is a part of the game. There is no doubt that in the last few weeks all games played here at Marian have been on the rough side. However, I believe that when someone writes about football, it should be based on the facts and not mere "hearsay". This is the only way that many students, such as myself, can learn the truth, not someone's biased opinion regarding the incident at last Sunday's game between MFIC and those Bootstrapper guys-October 13, 1974.

Certainly the reference to the rough play should be addressed, and I believe, as an avid fan, that this type of play can be corrected through rigid enforcement of the rules of the game. If a player takes it upon himself to create an infraction of the rules, he should be penalized accordingly. This is the only way a game can be kept under control without it turning into a "free-for-all".

I also think that whoever the officials are, they must call the "cheap shots" as they see them with no bias or partisanship towards anyone individual or team.

Now to my rebuttal of Mellow's remarks. Those "cheap shots" you mentioned were exactly that- poor sportsmanship. However, you picked on the wrong team. Since you perhaps weren't there, you of course wouldn't have seen what ignited the spark of high spirited emotionalism. It was the MFIC who displayed the "cheap shots" at the beginning with their quarter back purposely throwing the football at those bootstrapper guys twice because of utter frustration. Plus, there appeared to be a few (Con't next column) elbows flying and tackling going on. As a fan viewing this game, I thought we fans were witnessing a preview of the movie, "The Longest Yard". But I think that if it hadn't been for the initial spark, those army guys wouldn't have become so "Kill oriented". As Drew Appolyby would say- There was a cause and an affect.

So let's have peaceful, fun-loving games with little ill-feelings towards our colleagues, and for you who report on the games, tell it the way it is, but keep your facts in order.

--A Loyal Fan

The Friesen Report

Greetings. After a two week vacation (a binge in Tee-ah-joe-on-ah) my editor finally located me, brought me down, and now has me tied to the typewriter with nine pound chains. I think he found me out when I tried to sell Saga Frisbees to gringo tourists. I'll never learn, should have sold my body to the highest bidder. You wouldn't believe how far a dollar six bits will go in that town.

However, since I have been storing my vast knowledge on all subjects for two weeks, this should be a good column. I've got lots of stuff to talk about with you concerning both the PERC and the Caf. Sort of a fire side chat. (If you know where that expression comes from, you're too old for this column, so go back to your rocking chair.)

First item concerns the PERC. Your lords of creation, the Seniors, are planning a blow out down there this coming Wednesday. I hope that you will all come down and enjoy it. It will cost you a fifty cent donation to get in the door but you'll more than make that up in the reduced rates even if you only want a burger and coke. Music will be provided by (the/a) HEAVY DUTY GROUP. Come all you ghosts and goblins and witches and assorted cats, and join us for a heavy time.

Also concerning the PERC, we have another sooner-dooner special coming up-> Frisbees. Starting Saturday, we'll be giving away a frisbee with every Pizza order, (not this Wed.) Qualifications for the free frisbee are this; any Pizza ordered after 6 pm gets you a free "Humphrey Flyer" Super Whizmee. They're neat, they're fun, and best of all they're FREEEEEE. This offer is good while the supply lasts, only. We hope that you will take part in this and have fun. We make good pizza, it's cheap and now it comes with a Frisbee (maybe we could just send it over to the dorm on the Frisbee and save delivery costs.)

Now.....As Concerns the CAF, I need your help. I'm faced with two main problems in the CAF right now. First and foremost is the fact that some of the students aren't satisfied with the culinary delights offered. I need to talk to you about these. I don't need notes in the suggestion box that just say "the food tastes like crap". If there is anything that you can tell me that you would like changed, tell me. I will either change it or explain to you why I can't change it. In that case I will offer you alternate solutions.

The second problem I have is also serious for both you and me. Food costs. And it's costing more and more every day. A group of students will be starting a project next week on Food Ecology. We're not trying to cut back your eating, but rather the amount of food that (Con't page 3, Col. 1) is wasted. Please help us out. It's important for all of us. What costs for me will eventually be passed back to the students in the future. We all want to keep costs down and try to avoid price increases in the future.

For now I'm going to turn this over to those slave-driving-imperialists that runs this rag, and wander down to the Mug-Rack for a beerh coke. Peace. ---Dave Friesen

There will be a meeting Tuesday, October 29th at 6:30 p.m., in Clare Hall Lounge for anyone interested in participating in the Volunteer Services Program at Marion County Juvenile Center.

In order to participate, one must attend an orientation program at the juvenile center, Monday, November 4th, Wednesday, November 6th, and Friday, November 8th, from 7:30-10:00 p.m. each evening. Transportation will be set up at the October 29th meeting for this program. If there are any questions, call Kathy Harbor-Ext 387-Coordinator of Juvenile Court Volunteer Services.

Bob says: Sticks and stones will break my bones, but shaving cream is worse.

Boy, haven't we had fun the past two days? I mean, throwing water on each other and shaving cream fights, or putting entirely clothed young ladies in the men's shower! Oh, oh, oh what fun. (I sure wish I had my sandbox again)

If you believe that the previous paragraph was a bit absurd or obnoxious then, famed resident students, contemplate your actions this week. I used to think this was Marvin University not Kindergarten Kollege. Showing any Popeye cartoons this weekend?? Silly isn't it? So are you.

Bob (Up late at nights) Bitchin' P.S. Anybody think about poor old Cy the morning after?? P.P.S. Bob Bitchin' is not Bob Nocton-there's no relation.

Dark of the Moon is now in rehearsal. Opens: November 22nd, and will be performed in Marian Hall Auditorium November 22nd-24th. It's Marian's answer to The Exorcist. The witches are riding--listen any night for the flap of eagle wings. Hit-a-goin' to be a scary show and that-a-diggen' fact!

Student Board Report

The Student Board met on Sunday, October 20, 1974 at 7:30 in the Social Council Room. Clare Hall reported that the Blood Bank will be on campus November 21st. The Senior Class representative reported a Halloween party will be held Wednesday night, October 30th, from 8:30-11:30 in the PERC. There will be a band and price cuts on food. It was reported by the Student Service representative that the idea of having some sort of Military Personnel Health Assistance fell through due to some incorrect diagnosing in the past. They are thinking of contacting the Indiana Board of Health and possibly getting a retired physician to be on call.

Any organization or departments wishing to sponsor an event or display during Parent's Weekend (Nov. 8-10) contact Theresa Belles.

Old Business

The Board tabled the money motion for the Business Club's Alumni Social Gathering.

New Business

The Board will select two students to serve on Ad Hoc Facilities Committee (Energy Conservation Committee).

Women's Sports

As the season nears its end, we have little to report. No big upsets-just the routine serve, return, volley, pass, slip, fall, slide, swing, duck, into the net, side out!

However folks-you can get off your knees and stop praying-No one beat the Garden Ladies! Yes, "S.G." remains on top. They are official champs of League "A", after fracturing Whatsitova Wed. night. (Sorry Niesen-but that's the breaks!) Cool Ghouls are the No.2 team and we'd like to congratulate them--"Congratulations!!!"

League "B" will see one more night of action next Monday, but no upsets are foreseen (C'mon Tweed Hearts!)

So it will be the Pit vs. Schuck's Garden on Mon. Oct. 28th, and Cool Ghouls vs. B.S. Bombers (undoubtedly) on Mon. Nov. 4th. The winners will play for the big title following that game.

That's it for now--Main, Little Wap and Starkie.

Men's Sports

Well sports fans, Fran has retired from his long and glorious writing career and I will do my best to fill his vacant shoes.

Last week's football saw the Stoned Rangers win by forfeit to, you guessed it, the ?. The second game saw the league leading Bad Joses come off a slow first half, 12-6, to crush the Hops 35-12, thanks to Joe Putz. Next came a strong Nad team taking on the up and down M.F.I.C. In the end it was 13-12, Nads in a very close and exciting game. The last game of the afternoon saw the young Harvey Wallbangers beat the Bootstrappers, 12-0 in a well played contest.

This week is the last of the regular season schedule and should prove to be a good one. At 1:30, M.F.I.C. will take on the Hops I'll pick M.F.I.C. by 2 pts. At 2:30, the big contest is slated. The battle for first place in division two. The first place Nads will tangle with the Stoned Rangers. I'll have to go with the more experienced Rangers by a T.D. The last regular season game is at 3:30 when the Bad Joses play the suprising Harvey Wallbangers. It'll be a good game, but I see the Joses as a 14 point favorite. The Bootstrappers will win their first game Sunday by forfeit to the Leftovers (!). So the season is over for these two teams. Thanks---Mellow

P.S. The Standings

Division 1		Division 2
Bad Joses	6-0	The Nads	5-1
Harvey Wallbangers	4-2	Stoned Rangers	4-1-1
Bootstrap	1-6	M.F.I.C.	2-3-1
Leftovers	0-7	The Hops	2-4

Hasta Luego
